Visionary of “Bridging the gap between rural and urban students and teachers by providing an innovative Parallel Education System in English reading, speaking & mathematical ability skill”

CITATION FOR DR B. FREDY FERNANDO

Incorporating the quote, “Teach A Man to fish”, Dr. B Fredy Fernando is an innovator, and educator, with an experience of 21 years plus, in educational research, content development, deployment, implementation, consultation, and marketing strategies. He came out with innovative, cost-effective, goal- oriented, computer-based, psycho-linguistic based Spoken English and mathematical skills for school children in rural areas. These are the skills that are a bit tough to be implemented. Dr. B. Fredy Fernando made them easy by encapsulating the process of learning with adventure and fun, thereby making it interesting for the kids to adapt without difficulty; and made easy for the teachers to teach them. He makes sure that the objective is met, by assessing the students professionally through the introduction of the unique concept of “Train the Trainer; Test the Learner with 3rd party assessment”.

Dr. B. Fredy Fernando has spent a considerable amount of time, energy, knowledge, and money, on the conception and implementation of this idea. He has done various school visits, both in India and abroad, participated in brainstorming sessions with educationalists, psychologists, ICT Experts, school teachers, and principals has acquired knowledge regarding information, implementation, testing, and analysis through various sources, all through these years. He is continuing the research still, on the teaching behaviour of the teachers and learning behaviour of the students and has come up with an innovative solution to improve the result oriented, English Speaking Skill with his own philosophy of the sort, “DON’T TEACH THE STUDENTS, INSTEAD, MAKE THEM TO LEARN “. To strengthen the concept further and to bring and maintain the quality, he has incorporated the “TRAIN THE TRAINER; TEST THE LEARNER” concept, to get the best learning outcome from students.

Blemkan el Jito M’noo – The Place I Come From

Blemkan el jito m’noo words came out round from my mouth and slipped in my throat like zangula b’silan.

Bleiam el suda, on the darkest days, they pierced my body long and spiky, like your pins and needles
Nana Daisy el Hyata, my mom the seamstress.

Blemkan el jito m’noo my dreams spilled into rivers at nightfall.

Jackals split the skies with their cries, candlelight crawled on wooden walls.

Blemkan el jito m’noo we were brown, skinny girls on metal cots.
D’llol el walad, d’llol, Nana sang,
with no doubt and no deceit.

Like orphans, we were. How they threw us there Nana, in Kfar Anna, rundown shacks in a wonderland of a thousand and one nights.

Blemkan el jito m’noo I danced in a flowery dress you sewed for me on a black Singer machine. I ran and jumped over mallow and thistle like a dragonfly.
I didn’t linger in dark wadis.

My legs were light, my dreams immense.
